Winter Weather Briefing

November 14, 2014 6 am CDT

Find us on Facebook

twitter

You Tube

National Weather Service

Topeka, KS

http://www.weather.gov/top

Email: w-top.webmaster@noaa.gov

Phone: 785-234-2592

Accumulating Snow Saturday

SE 5-10 mph | SE 10 mph | Shifting NW 10-15 mph

Heaviest Snow | Lighter Snow

Winter Weather Advisory (2-4 Inches Snow)
4 AM – 6 PM Saturday

Early Saturday | Sat Afternoon | Sat Night

3AM | 6AM | 9AM | 12PM | 3PM | 6PM | 9PM | 12AM

Highlights

- 2”-4” of snow is Very Likely
- Locally Up to 5” possibly
- Heaviest Snowfall between 5am & noon
- Expect roads to be snow packed and hazardous with reduced visibilities.

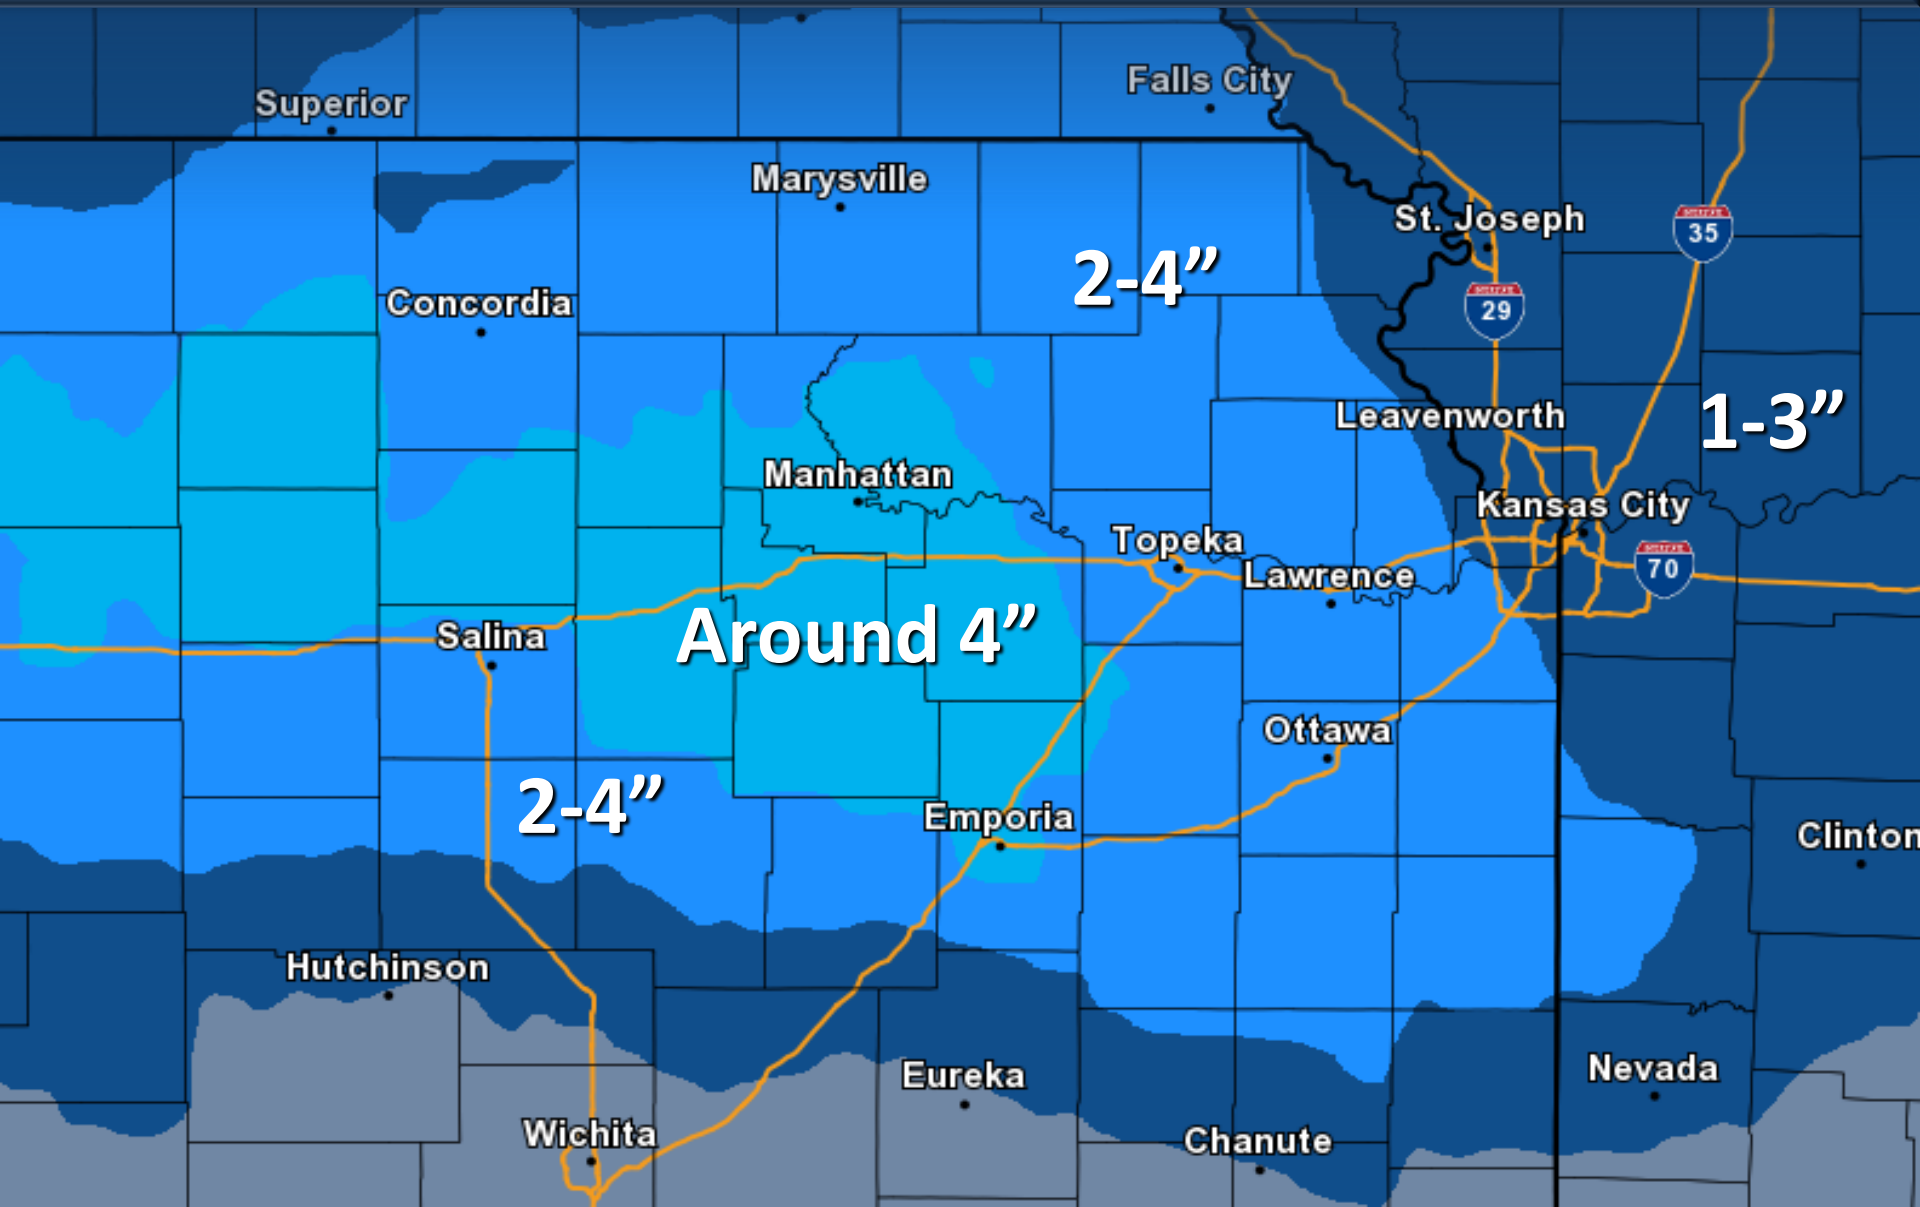
Forecast Snow Amounts

National Weather Service – Topeka, Kansas

weather.gov/Topeka | National Weather Service Topeka | @NWSTopeka | Updated: 11/14/2014 4:28 AM

Winter Weather Briefing

Expected Accumulations



Winter Weather Briefing
Confidence

- Timing – Moderate

  Peak Intensity 5am to Noon
- Location – Moderate

  Widespread Accumulations
- Precipitation Type – High

  Precipitation all snow
- Accumulation Amounts – High

  Most location receive 2”-4” with locally higher amounts

Winter Weather Briefing
Impacts

- Difficult and Hazardous travel conditions
- Snow Packed Roads
- Poor visibilities during heaviest snowfall
- Winds shift to the northwest Saturday evening 10 to 15 MPH
- Wind Chills in the single digits Sunday morning

Winter Weather Briefing

November 14, 2014 6 am CDT

Find us on Facebook

twitter

You Tube

National Weather Service

Topeka, KS

http://www.weather.gov/top

Email: w-top.webmaster@noaa.gov

Phone: 785-234-2592