

OPERATION WEATHER SURVIVAL

Minutes for the May 20th Meeting

- I. Welcome and Introductions
Attending: Debbie Fagin, Rich Krueger, Kelli McCurdy, Anneliese Stoever, David P. Sykora, Nichole Krafve, Gloria Thirdkill, Ellen Sherman, Becky White, Sue Rundblad, Colleen Beckwith, Ruth Caslano, Jackie Hutchinson, Shelly Shehan, Chelsie Harmon
- II. Energy reports
CAA: CAASTL will have ECIP funds coming in June. They will provide a maximum of $300 per person for ECIP (receiving around $600,000, electricity only). Application will stand if they've received EA. They will need a current disconnection notice. Some Dollar More should be received in June. Might receive some Cool Down St. Louis funds. HDC: HDC is also awaiting funds in June.
- III. Hot Weather Response
  - a. Changes suggested in the last meeting were addressed.
  - b. NWS determined that a Excessive Heat Advisory will be issued when the Heat Index is 105 or the maximum air temperature is greater than or equal to 100 degrees F.
- IV. Special Needs Registry presentation—David P. Sykora
- V. Outreach
Molly Martin is working with “Meet the Heat Heads On” to get the message out to seniors about preparing for the hot weather. Anneliese shared SLAAA’s hot weather flier and requested feedback. She will e-mail the final copy to everyone next week.
- VI. Media Packet
Each year Jackie puts together the Media Packet (for agencies and the media). Jackie has contacted organizations that have had information in the packets in the past. If any organizations have information they want in the packet, please mail it to Annetta Stalling at 4548 Martin Luther King, St. Louis, 63113. The information is needed as soon as possible! Jackie will make 200 packets (folders from Ameren and covers from the United Way are needed). If you need extra packets, please let Jackie know.
- VII. Cooling sites: TBD at the next meeting.
- VIII. Announcements: Jewish Family & Children’s Service is having their “Feed the Pantry—Feed the Soul” event at 10950 Schuetz Rood between 12 & 3 on June 8th. Admission is a bag of groceries.

Next Meeting: June 10th at 2:30—conference call!
