

50-Year Weather Reporting Award to Columbus Powerhouse

The National Weather Service of Valley, Nebraska, presented the Columbus Powerhouse with a plaque recognizing their 50 years of weather reporting.

Several Powerhouse employees, both past and present, were on hand for the presentation.

Pictured (l.-r.):

Seated:

Bob Nyffeler, retired Plant Operator;
John Cieloha, retired Hydro Superintendent;
Rich Bernt, retired Hydro Superintendent;
Wendell Ita, retired Plant Operator;

Standing:

Justin Kohl, Plant Operator;
Rod Zarek, Plant Operator;
Joe Noyd, Plant Operator;
Terry Landsvork, National Weather Service,
Valley, NE;
Brad Morton, Hydro Superintendent;
Jim Meyer, National Weather Service, Valley,
NE;
Ron Cieloha, Powerhouse Maintenance
Supervisor;
Dave Walkowiak, Plant Operator;
Jim Jakub, Plant Operator.

November 19, 2013

Photos by Theresa Petr, Communications Coordinator