

SKYWARN

Severe Storm Spotter Class

Sponsored by: Meramec (Arnold) Elks Lodge #2372
Jefferson County Emergency Management Agency
Rock Community Fire Protection C.E.R.T. Team
Jefferson County Amateur Radio Club

Class Date: October 18th, 2012

Course Description: National Weather Service Severe Storm Spotter Training Class

Target Audience: Anyone interested in learning more about severe weather and who is willing to help their community be better prepared. Typical participants are representatives of emergency management, fire, police, emergency medical agencies, Community Emergency Response Teams (CERT), school representatives and amateur radio operators. The class is open to the public.

Location: Meramec (Arnold) Elks Lodge #2372
1515 Miller Road
Imperial, Mo. 63052
(West Outer Road and Miller Road)

Class Time: 6:30 PM sharp!
Reservation Required: Call 314-630-7796 to reserve a spot
LIMITED SPACE RESERVE EARLY!!!!

The class is POST Certified. Law Enforcement personnel will receive 2 hours credit.

Help your community battle severe weather by becoming a volunteer severe storm spotter!